Not every one can be the star
That shines with great white light,
But some must twinkle from afar
To harmonize the night.

If you have the blues, read the 27th Psalm. If your pocketbook is empty, read the 37th Psalm. If people seem unkind, read the 15th chapter of John. If you are discouraged about your work, read the 126th Psalm. If you are all out of sorts, read the 12th chapter of Hebrews. If you are losing confidence in mankind, read the 13th chapter of Corinthians. If you can't have your own way in everything, read the third chapter of James.

"Home Happiness" Oake. Take one cup common sense, a half cup of justice, one and a half cups of love stirred with one and a half teaspoons of mutual confidence, add two large portions of sense of humor, beaten separately. Spice to taste with wit and nonsense. Bake in the moderate oven of warm approval, see with generous appreciation.

"The most beautiful country my eyes ever looked upon."
—Daniel Boone—

..and you'll agree with Daniel Boone's description of Southeastern Kentucky

Southeastern Kentucky is a paradise of beautiful mountain scenery. From Pinnacle Mountain, on a clear day, a view may be had of six states. . . . In this section is located Cumberland Gap, through which came Daniel Boone and the first settlers of Kentucky. . . . At State Park, near Barbourville, is a replica of the first house built in Kentucky. . . . Among the many interesting things to see are Black Mountain (Kentucky's highest mountain); the Cumberland River Falls; the celebrated "Trail of the Lonesome Pine"; Berea College at Berea, and the Pine Mountain Settlement School, and Pine Mountain State Park. The wild flowers in this section are particularly beautiful.

Motor through Kentucky this summer. Standard Oil service stations and dealers in Standard Oil products offer the motorist every convenience all along the way. New and interesting road maps (in color) free of charge.
